ANNE WEBLEY,

Juſt arrived in the PLANTER'S ADVENTURE, Capt. LOWLEY, from LONDON:

HAS to diſpoſe of, in one of Mr. John McCall's new tenements in Bedon's-Alley, a large variety of the moſt faſhionable MILLINERY GOODS, which buſineſs will be carried on in all its branches, on the loweſt terms.

LONDON, JANUARY 11.

WE are informed, that the laſt Weſt India mail diſpatched, contained orders for Sir William Burnaby to convoy a ſufficient convoy, from the ſhips of his ſquadron, to the Britiſh Logwood Cutters in the Bay of Honduras, with poſitive orders to repell by force any indignities offered.

A draught of all ſuch places which the crown of Great-Britain have an undoubted right to in the Bay of Honduras, we are informed, has lately been made out, copies of which were this week diſpatched to the court of Madrid, with the miniſtry's final ſentiments thereon.

They write from Guernſey, that two experienced engineers arrived there the 10th of December laſt from Portſmouth, to take a ſurvey of the ground moſt proper for the erection of ſome new forts, on that and the neighbouring iſlands in the Britiſh Channel.

Yeſterday morning was held a Board of Trade, relating chiefly to the commercial affairs of the new-ceded iſlands in the Weſt-Indies.

Some months ſince a gentleman being very ill, one of his acquaintance called upon him, and told him he would not live Chriſtmas over. The ſick man offered him 50 l. if he would give him 20 s. per day for every day he lived after Chriſtmas; which the other agreeing to, an attorney was ſent for, and articles were immediately drawn up, ſigned and executed, and to bind the bargain, Bank ſecurity was given. Some time after he recovered, and began laſt Chriſtmas-Day to receive the ſaid 20 s. and appears likely to live a great many years, being now healthy and ſtrong.

JANUARY 15.

They write from France, that the injurious practice of one part of the naval powers of Europe ſupplying the Barbary ſtates with ammunition and warlike ſtores, in order to enable them to prey upon the other, is ſoon likely to be entirely laid aſide, no leſs than three very ſevere remonſtrances having lately been diſpatched to different courts on the ſubject; which, it is thought, would put a ſtop to a commerce ſo diſhonourable to the Chriſtian powers.

We hear application is going to be made to parliament for obtaining a certain bounty per ton on ſhips fitted out from the Britiſh colonies, for carrying on a whale-fiſhery in the North-American ſeas.

We are aſſured, that the eſtate of the Duke of Devonſhire, before his Grace comes of age, will be at leaſt 50,000 l. per annum.

We hear the ſtop lately put to the fortifications of Milford-Haven, is in conſequence of a more enlarged plan, to be vigorouſly carried into execution the enſuing ſummer.

We are credibly informed, that no ſcheme has yet been fixed upon towards raiſing the ſupplies for the enſuing year, nor will any thing of this nature be aſcertained till ſome time after the meeting of parliament.

It is ſaid ſome gentlemen concerned in the iron mines in America, are about to contract with the government for what cannon and other ordnance ſtores may for the future be wanted for the uſe of the iſlands on the Britiſh continent, from foundaries of that country: The ſcheme is ſaid to be vaſtly beneficial, and will be a ſaving to the nation in a large amount.

We hear there is a deſign on foot to raiſe two new regiments of marines on the Iriſh eſtabliſhment, to be ſtationed in the principal ſea-ports of that kingdom, for the better ſupply of his Majeſty's ſhips of war on that ſtation, with ſo uſeful a corps, who act in the double capacity of ſoldiers and ſeamen.

All things are ſettled to ſatisfaction in regard to the adminiſtration of affairs of the Biſhoprick of Oſnabruz, during the minority of the Prince Biſhop.

Yeſterday his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter, was ſworn in one of his Majeſty's moſt honourable Privy Council, and took his ſeat at the Board accordingly.

Yeſterday the ſeveral agents employed in the affairs of the ſeveral ſugar colonies, began to ſee council learned in the law, previous to their reſpective petitions being laid for the enſuing Parliament.

FEBRUARY 8.

We hear all the new 40 gun ſhips now in the harbour are ordered to be cut down and lengthened, in order to be converted into frigates of 32 eighteen-pounders upon one deck.

It is ſaid a regular packet-boat has this week been ordered to be eſtabliſhed between England and Minorca.

FEBRUARY 12.

They write from the Iſle of Man, that they have had on thoſe coaſts the greateſt take of herrings that has been known for many years paſt, ſo that upwards of 20,000 barrels have been exported to foreign parts.

A great whale, taken ſome time ago, and preſented to the Britiſh muſeum, it is to be mounted as a ſkeleton, and when finiſhed, will be the only one in Europe, and therefore a great curioſity. It meaſured 103 feet in length.

Yeſterday morning, about half an hour paſt ten o'clock, a very conſiderable body of the maſter and journeymen Perukemakers waited on his Majeſty, at the Queen's-Palace, with their petition; which his Majeſty received very graciouſly, and was pleaſed to read it himſelf.

A new ſettlement on an iſland on the coaſt of Africa, between the ſtraights of Gibraltar and Cape Blanco, is approved and agreed on by the Board of Trade, which, it is ſaid, will ſhortly be laid before the parliament for their approbation.

We hear there is a deſign to tranſport all our future female convicts, of a certain age, to the two Floridas, inſtead of ſending them, as hitherto, to Maryland and Virginia.

We hear information have laſt week been given unto a certain office, upon oath, and ſupported by credible witneſſes, of no leſs than fifteen private Meeting-houſes in about this metropolis, which have hitherto paſſed for thoſe of Diſſenters, but are, in reality, Jeſuitical ſeminaries, where the moſt dangerous doctrines are openly broached, equally tending to ſubvert the morals and allegiance of the deluded audience.

Extract of a Letter from Howforgh, Feb. 1.

"Artificers are daily arriving here from Saxony, for want of the means of procuring ſubſiſtence in their own country. They are only waiting for a thaw to repair to Amſterdam, where they deſign to engage, if they can, for the Eaſt or Weſt-Indies; to which the Saxons are much more adapted than other nations, as well on account of the ſtrength of their conſtitutions, as by their ſobriety and ſobriety, two qualities very requiſite for long voyages."

FEBRUARY 13.

"'Tis pretty confidently aſſerted, that the Colonies will ſoon be obliged to bear ſuch a part of the public expence, as will eaſe the mother country very conſiderably.

Orders were ſent to the different yards for fitting out ſome men of war that are to be employed next ſeaſon for the protection of the Newfoundland Fiſhery.

There is little Likelihood, we now hear, that the cyder duty will be repealed. A celebrated perſonage, who about five years ago drew the whole attention of Europe on account of his behaviour as a general, will, we hear, be appointed on the embaſſy to Denmark.

On Wedneſday the College Youths rang for the firſt time, a peal on the twelve bells at St. Bride's, ſince the repair of the ſpire, and every part anſwered the expectation of the Surveyor and Maſon, who attended.

On GENERAL WARRANTS.

LET the good of the State
Plainly plead for the Great,
Were Warrants they iſſue out General;
But ſure no Man will make
Such a horrid Miſtake,
As to ſay that ſuch Warrants are Legal.

FEBRUARY 16.

We hear that the fortifications carrying on at Milford-Haven, which on account of the winter ſeaſon had been poſtponed, will be reſumed early in the ſpring, and that a parliamentary aid will be granted for that purpoſe.

Tueſday morning a great number of Hatters went up with a petition to his Majeſty, praying relief from the great hardſhips they labour under, for want of employment, ſome hundreds of them being in a ſtarving condition, occaſioned by the buſineſs being greatly engroſſed by foreigners.

A few days ago was married at Edinburgh, a Bruſh-Maker, of ſo low a ſtature, that he was commonly, in deriſion, called, The Town Steeple, to a young girl, alſo of the pigmy ſize: The bridegroom and bride both together meaſured five feet eight inches in height, and about the ſame in breadth; the nuptials were celebrated with a good deal of mirth.

The debt of his Majeſty's navy being much increaſed, during the courſe of the late war, we hear a plan is now under conſideration for the reduction thereof.

We hear the Commiſſioners of Trade have determined to hold two board-days regularly every week, for the quicker diſpatch of buſineſs, during the preſent ſitting of parliament.

It is ſaid a ſtrenuous oppoſition is intended to be made to the motion for introducing Church Dignities in North-America.

It is ſaid ſome inſtructions, of a very conciſe nature, were diſpatched laſt week to our ambaſſador at the court of Madrid.

They write from Breſt, that it is whiſpered there, that the ſhips of war fitting out with ſo much diligence at that port, are deſtined for the Eaſt-Indies.

They write from France, that they are fitting out ſhips in all their ports on the Ocean, in order to take the very firſt advantage of the ſeaſon for fiſhing at Newfoundland. At Bayonne, Sibourg, St. Vallery, Jean de Luz, and Havre, double the number will be ſent out that were laſt year.

On ſeeing the pictures of LOVAT and WILKES drawn by HOGARTH.

FROM forty-five to ſixty-three,
What changes time do bring!
'Tis now as bad to hate the Scot,
As then to hate the King.
Old LOVAT lov'd a STUART well,
HOGARTH his picture drew;
WILKES hates a STUART from his heart,
And HOGARTH joins the two.

CHARLES-TOWN, April 20, 1765.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London, to his friend in Charles-Town, dated Feb. 8, 1765.

"AFTER ſeveral meetings and conſultations of the agents for the colonies, as to the mode and meaſure of oppoſition to be given to the Stamp-Bill, all of them having inſtructions to ſuggeſt the rights and privileges of the colonies, and to diſpute (as it were) the power of parliament, it became neceſſary for thoſe agents, who were not in parliament, to learn if petitions diſputing that power would be received in the houſe? In the mean time, if poſſible to ward off the intended blow, as moſt of the colonies had ſignified their inclination to aſſiſt the Mother-country upon proper requiſitions from hence, tho' at preſent labouring under a heavy debt, it was agreed, that it might have a good effect to have that inclination made known to adminiſtration? For that purpoſe, Mr. Garth, Doctor Franklin, Mr. Jackſon, and Mr. Ingerſoll, were deſired by the reſt of the Agents to attend the Chancellor of the Exchequer, who aſſured them, of his readineſs and deſire to purſue ſuch meaſures only as might give univerſal ſatisfaction; but that he was bound in honour to parliament, to call for the reſolution of laſt year, and to propoſe to the houſe the carrying into execution a ſtamp-duty in all America; adding, if the houſe ſhould think on any other method of procuring aſſiſtance from America, more eligible, he ſhould not object to it.

"Accordingly upon the 6th inſt. he propoſed to the committee of ways and means, the meaſure the houſe by their reſolution of laſt year thought might be proper and neceſſary, that of charging ſtamp duties in America. The arguments urged, tended to prove, that the colonies were all virtually repreſented in parliament, in the ſame manner as thoſe of the ſubjects in Great-Britain, who did not vote for repreſentatives; ſundry acts of parliament were recited that had from time to time been enacted, impoſing duties on the American ſubjects; that there could not be a diſtinction between the powers of legiſlation and taxation; accounts were produced of the ſeveral ſums raiſed by each colony on the continent, and in the Weſt-Indies, towards defraying their reſpective civil eſtabliſhments, in the whole amounting to £. 75,000 per annum, or thereabouts; there were likewiſe ſtated accounts of the ſeveral debts the colonies ſtood charged with at preſent, amounting in the whole to about £. 900,000 ſterling, all of which would be paid off before the year 1769; that therefore it was but reaſonable the colonies ſhould contribute at leaſt to take off that part of the burthen from the mother-country which concerns the protection and defence of themſelves: The power of parliament was aſſerted, and ſo univerſally agreed to, that no petition diſputing it will be received. The advocates for the colonies therefore choſe to take the ſenſe of the houſe upon a queſtion for adjourning; Mr. Alderman Beckford moved it, ſeconded by Sir William Meredith, they divided the committee about midnight, but it was carried againſt them by 245 to 49."

Charles Garth, Eſq; Agent for this province in Great-Britain, is elected a member of parliament for the borough of Devizes, in the room of his father deceaſed; and has reſigned the Crown Agency for Georgia.

Lately died, in St. John's pariſh, the Rev. Mr. Levi Durand, reſtor of the ſaid pariſh.

In Charles-Town, laſt Sunday Capt. Francis Lejau.

And yeſterday, Mr. Moſes Audebert.

BLACK healthy WET NURSES, to be hired by the month. Inquire at the Printing-Office, in Broad-Street.

For the ENTERTAINMENT of the CURIOUS,

Will be exhibited, at a convenient room in Mr. Ralph Bailey's tavern, a courſe of experiments in that laborious and entertaining branch of natural philoſophy, call'd ELECTRICITY, to be accompanied with lectures on the nature and properties of Electric Fire,

By WILLIAM JOHNSON.

THE courſe conſiſts of two lectures:—In the firſt of which, all the properties of that wonderful element, as far as the latelt diſcoveries have made us acquainted therewith, are demonſtrated in a number of curious and entertaining experiments, many of which are entirely new. In the ſecond lecture, this fire is ſhewn to be real lightning, and in that view conſider'd (as it really is) as one of the moſt awful powers of nature. Moſt of the effects of lightning are imitated by the electric fire, ſuch as, killing animals, melting metal, tearing and rending bodies thro' which it paſſes; together with many curious experiments, naturally repreſenting the various phænomena of thunder ſtorms, accounting for their cauſes, and explaining their effects. A practical method of preſerving ourſelves and our houſes from the deſtructive violence of lightning, will likewiſe be ſhewn, the efficacy of which will be demonſtrated by ſuch indubitable proofs, from experience, as have not yet been exhibited to the world. The endeavouring to guard againſt lightning, in the manner propoſed, ſhewn not to be chargeable with preſumption, nor inconſiſtent with any of the principles of natural or revealed religion.

As the knowledge of nature tends to enlarge the human heart, and give us more noble and exalted ideas of the God of Nature, it is hoped that this courſe will prove, to many, an agreeable entertainment.

The days of exhibition will be on Tueſday, Wedneſday, Thurſday, and Friday next, and on the correſponding days in the two following weeks, to begin at half paſt three o'clock preciſely, in the afternoon.

TICKETS to be had at Mr. Timothy's Printing office in Broad-Street, and at the bar of Mr. Beckhouſe's tavern, at Forty ſhillings currency for the whole courſe.

N. B. No perſon to be admitted without a ticket, by paying at the door, as the inconveniency is great, and muſt be obvious to every one.

TO divers perſons who are in arrears to his majeſty for QUIT RENTS, that unleſs they diſcharge ſuch arrears to his majeſty's receiver general, or to his lawful deputy in Charles-Town, on or before the 24th of June next, that then writs will be iſſued againſt each delinquent without reſpect of perſons.

JOHN RUTLEDGE, Attorney General.

WE the ſubſcribers, aſſignees of HUGH SWINTON, give notice, that, for the convenience of his debtors who reſide in the country, he is properly authoriſed to receive and give diſcharges for all debts due to him and aſſigned to us.—All perſons againſt whom he has any demands, are deſired to ſettle immediately with him, or one of us, whereby they will avoid trouble and expence.

PETER MANIGAULT,
GEORGE INGLIS.
ANDREW MAKR.

Charles-Town, Feb. 22*d*, 1765.

RUNAWAY from the ſubſcriber's ſcooner about ten days ago, a negro man named QUASH; he is a black well-ſet fellow, bow legged, and about 40 years of age, 5 feet and an half high, had on when he went away, a blue great coat, ſpeckled ſhirt, and trowſers made of white plains, he is an artful raſcal, ſpeaks good Engliſh, has a wife at Mr. Champneys, and I hear he ſays he is free, and probably will ſeek employ on board of veſſels, as he underſtands caulking, is a jobbing carpenter and wheelwright. Any perſon that apprehends and brings him to me, or to the warden of the work-houſe, ſhall have TEN POUNDS reward.

JAMES SKIRVING.
